

Proposed Program Discontinuation
Bachelor of Education in Adult Education

Posting Date: January 30, 2023

Brock's Department of Educational Studies has submitted a Request for Program Discontinuation indicating that it wishes approval to discontinue the Bachelor of Education in Adult Education program under the Institutional Quality Assurance Processes \(IQAP\).

As part of the process, the Request is being made available for the information of the University community, to allow the opportunity for comment prior to moving to the next step in the institutional quality assurance process.

The Request can be viewed here. The posting will remain in place for 21 days--until 4:30 p.m. on Monday, February 20, 2023.

Comments on the above Request must be submitted by Monday, February 20, 2023 via email to the Academic Review Committee, via the Vice-Chair, Brian Power and Department of Educational Studies Chair, David Hutchison.

In submitting your response, please include ADED Program Discontinuation in the subject line.