

Proposed Program Discontinuation
BA in Popular Culture (Honours, with Major, Pass)

Posting Date: October 31, 2024

Brock's Department of Communication, Popular Culture and Film has submitted a Request for Program Discontinuation indicating that it wishes to discontinue the BA in Popular Culture (Honours, with Major, Pass) for approval under the Institutional Quality Assurance Processes (IQAP).

As part of that process, the Request is being made available for the information of the University community, to provide the opportunity for comment prior to moving to the next step in the institutional quality assurance process.

The Request to Discontinue can be viewed here. The posting will remain in place for 21 days- until 4:30 p.m. on November 21, 2024.

Comments on the above proposal must be submitted by November 21 via email to the Academic Review Committee, via the Vice-Chair Brian Power and Communication, Popular Culture and Film Department Chair Jennifer Good. In submitting your response, please include the PCUL Discontinuation in the subject line.
