Research in Brock Psychology
✦ #7 in Canada (#3 in Ontario) for publications per faculty member
✦ #3 in Canada (#1 in Ontario) for citations per faculty member (2004 to 2008; see Table 2 of Carleton, Peluso, & Asmundson, 2010, Can Psych)

Social/personality faculty members
✦ Mike Ashton: personality structure and assessment
✦ Kathy Belicki: forgiveness, post-traumatic growth
✦ Tony Bogaert: development of sexual orientation, including asexuality
✦ Angela Book: psychopathy, victim selection, emotion perception
✦ Michael Busseri: subjective well-being, temporal self-evaluations
✦ Carolyn Hafer: social psychology of justice, belief in a just world
✦ Gordon Hodson: intergroup relations, prejudice, discrimination, dehumanization
✦ Cathy Mondloch: person perception, emotion perception, face recognition

What our students say... collaborative research among faculty and students fosters rich learning environment tight-knit community of graduate students excellent training and mentorship in research and teaching

Graduate Student Opportunities
✦ Research collaboration with multiple faculty members
✦ Teaching assistantships in wide range of courses
✦ Basic minimum funding for all full-time students ✦ Publishing articles & presenting research at conferences
✦ Smaller program allows for close mentorship opportunities with faculty ✦ High proportion of PhD graduates obtaining academic & applied positions ✦ Apprenticeship opportunities in research, teaching, & community organizations