

The Youth University Design Model

We believe that learning should be personal, social, meaningful, and fun. Our instructors combine these values, with experiential education methods, to create transformative learning adventures. Our programs help young people to explore their interests, develop key transferable skills, and become motivated for life-long learning. In this way, we cultivate the leadership potential that exists in every unique individual to support success in this rapidly changing world.

